Comment: I can see Camden have changed the plan's. The cycle shed is now in the back garden and the parking has been changed to two car's parked behind each other.

I don't feel this is any better as it will still cause an issue of staff blocking in staff. So it is the same situation as before.

There still isn't enough parking for vistors

There will be more movement in the privately owned lane making it dangerous for walkers and residential cars, plus wear and tear. The lane is still not really suitable for emergency vehicles

I do not understand why they want to buy these property's and are spending so much money and time to make them suitable for use? When I don't believe they will be even after all the money spent on them. These are commercial use property's and need a big carpark not a house in a residential area with parking for a family. They have had so many trades and so much work this must be cost's thousands. Why don't they buy a more suitable property and in a better location? Or buy some land and build one ?
