Comment Reasons:

- Residential Amenity

Comment: The property is part of Haverhills history and sits in a prominent position nestling well with the plot giving the lane a unique character . Whilst the property is old this does not mean it could not be refurbished and sympathetically extended . It could be visited to see it's condition and discussions entered into with the developer . Looking up the lane it is easy to see modern development which is characterless . The town has lost a lot of individual properties and I believe the town benefits from retaining a mix
