Comment Reasons:

Comment:As a parent with autism in my family and living in Cambridge where there are many high functioning children of my friends and neighbours, who need to travel long distances to get this type of support, it is with great frustration that this type of facility has not been available in this area for the last 40 years. I have visited Sturmer Hall a number of times over the years and it is not only a beautiful site for a SEND school, with all the possibilities that that brings to give the pupils and experience of nature, but its location is excellent compared with a number of of the alternatives. Such a good use of the facility.
