Comment: I think it's a brilliant idea, so many people pass by the old fox everyday to get to work, school, college. It would be so great if instead of driving past a derelict pub they could go through a drive through and grab a coffee, the nearest convenience store to the redrow houses is Chapel drive, that is such a long distance, for a convenience store to be present in walking distance of the new houses I believe it would be a great convenience for all the residents, young and old.
